

Food For The Soul

by Brother Glenn Hunt

The Apostle Paul says of himself, “That I may KNOW Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being made conformable unto His death.” —Philippians 10:1. He is saying, that I may know Him intimately. Those who are willing to be made conformable to His death will want to know what kind of a death He died. Whatever the cost I want to attain to the out-resurrection from the dead, or from among the dead.

Paul states that by Christ’s death the preaching of the gospel has laid hold on him, so now I want to lay hold of HIM in all of His fulness, in all of His inheritance, in all of His blessings. He is saying, “I want to lay hold of all that He has for me.”

We are a new creation, today; we have crossed the ‘river Jordan’, thus we count ourselves dead with Christ, Let us press on for God, like Paul, toward the goal—to win the Prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

“Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an example”—Philippians 3:17.
